Open Class Marketing

LaBlast® will provide the host site with marketing materials for use with print, electronic and social media promotion of the Open Class. Host site agrees to promote to local market and to work with assigned Master Trainer to identify additional marketing and promotion opportunities within local community. LaBlast® will promote Open Class across various social media channels, through our instructor network, and established contacts local to the host site.

Cancellation

If, for any reason, the host site cancels the Open Class less than two (2) weeks from the scheduled date, host site will be charged a $250 cancellation fee and will be responsible for any cost of travel already incurred, including, but not limited to, flights and any non-refundable hotel charges.

The host site will not be penalized if, for any reason, LaBlast® needs to cancel the Open Class.
